The growth in registration means a great deal to the Republican party and has done much to improve the prospects of Prince Kuhio and of the Republican legislative nominees.

The "W. Harrison" on the Alameda's list when that vessel arrived at San Francisco, was probably William Harrison Wright. There was no such name on the roster when the vessel left Honolulu, but it appeared all right enough when the steamer made port across the pond.

General Miles is welcome to Honolulu as a soldier whose merits are appreciated and whose career, since he was the fighting colonel of the 61st Regt. N. Y. V., is clearly remembered. From the fact that he is not a West Pointer General Miles has suffered from detractors in the Army, but the dignity which his fame has given to the name of the American volunteer has endeared him to the people. He will find a loyal and hospitable welcome in this, the most American of all the insular ports of the United States.

Novelist Zola Dead.

PARIS, Sept. 29.—Emile Zola, the novelist, who gained additional prominence in recent years because of his defense of the Jews and of Captain Dreyfus, was found dead in his Paris home this morning. Asphyxiation, resulting from fumes from a stove in his bedroom, is given as the cause of death. M. Zola and his wife retired at 10 o'clock last night. Madame Zola was seriously ill when the room was broken into this morning. At about noon she was removed to a private hospital, where she recovered consciousness for a short time and was able briefly to explain to a magistrate what had happened. M. and Mme. Zola returned to Paris from their country house at Medan yesterday. Owing to a sudden spell of cold weather, the heating stove in their bedroom was ordered to be lighted. The stove burned badly, and the pipes of the stove are said to have been out of order.

The President's Condition.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—After Surgeon General Rixey and Surgeon General O'Reilly and Dr. Lung had visited the President this morning Secretary Cortelyou announced that the President had passed a very comfortable night and that he was doing nicely.

WASHINGTON, September 28.—Another operation was performed today on the abscess on the left leg of President Roosevelt. In the former operation a simple needle was used to relieve the trouble, but today the surgeons with a knife made an incision into the small cavity, exposing the bone, which was found to be slightly affected.

Russia and America.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—According to a St. Petersburg despatch to the Globe, the Far Eastern tour of Finance Minister Witte, who started for Manchuria September 24, will be partially devoted to ascertaining what trade concessions Russia can make to the United States, with the object of increasing the friendship between the two countries and facilitating the raising of a Russian loan in the United States.

American Generals Abroad.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—Major-General Corbin and Brigadier-General Wood and their party are at present at the Carleton Hotel here and intend to remain in England until October 18th. Major-General Young is expected here today. The social invitations accepted by the American Generals include dinners with Earl Roberts, Lord Kitchener and Secretary of War Brodrick.

Devery Turned Down.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Oct. 1.—The committee on contested seats reported to the convention against the seating of either the Devery or the Goodwin delegates in the Ninth New York Assembly District. Devery was unseated by a vote of the convention. But four counties voted for his retention.

Dynamite Bomb Thrown.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 1.—A dynamite bomb was thrown today at the residence of M. Dewlart, a Catholic member of the Chamber of Deputies. A man named Van der Meulen has been arrested on suspicion, but he denies having committed the crime.

May Yohe Divorced

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The divorce decree obtained March 21st by Lord Francis Hope against May Yohe was made absolute this morning.

Salisbury's Travels.

LUCERNE, Switzerland, Oct. 1.—Lord Salisbury started from here last night for his villa at Beaulieu, near Nice.

A CRISIS IN EMERALD ISLE

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The situation in Ireland is approaching a crisis, and there is reason to believe the government fears violence during the winter's proscriptio.

In Dublin the suspension of trial by jury has aroused a fierce resentment among all classes of Irish. Day by day the state of affairs is brought nearer akin to those that prevailed during the turbulent times. Premier Balfour's Secretary, Wyndham, continues his policy of locking up voters under the education bill. It seems probable that, when parliament reassembles the ranks of the Irish party will be seriously diminished by imprisonment.

Not only are the Catholics south and west of Ireland aflame, but with anger at the government also blaze the Protestant Ulster farmers. The latter were staunch supporters of the Castle until they were aroused. Their grievance is based upon the fact that, although they supported the government, they have received no concessions from the landlords, and are paying twenty and thirty per cent more rent than farmers in the west and south of Ireland. They have awakened to the fact that they have been used as political catspaws, and wherefore they are most bitter against the government, and there need be no surprise if Protestant Ulster this winter contributes to the record of violence in Ireland as many shootings of landlords as any of the Catholic provinces.

The new Lord Lieutenant-Governor, Dudley, is not strong enough to cope with the situation, and is locking up the Nationalist members of Parliament. Even Dudley's installation into office added fuel to the flame of hostility against the government, which has now spread into rural Ulster, where the landlords are hated as in the south. Further coercion, observers believe, is destined to precipitate widespread scenes of disorder during the ensuing winter, in which hitherto submissive, loyal Ulster will be found conspicuous. "The Freeman's Journal," after denouncing the suspension of trial by jury in the Dublin district, meaningly says: "There is but one method of meeting such gross folly—to oppose coercion to coercion, to oppose the powers of the people against the powers of tyranny, and to take the role of coercionists against coercionists."

Irish Insurgents

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The object of the meeting of Nationalist members of Parliament summoned by John Redmond, chairman of the Irish parliamentary party, for October 7th is, according to the Pall Mall Gazette, to consider the desirability of entire abstention from the autumn session of Parliament, whereby the Irish members will escape the odium of supporting the "coercionist" government in passing the education bill. As the Catholics heartily favor the bill the proposal is likely to lead a lively debate. The Pall Mall Gazette says it thinks the proposed abstention is partially due to the fact that through the absence of Messrs. Redmond and Dillon in America, the work of directing the party would fall on the "hated shoulders of Mr. Healy."

Irrigation Plans.

LINCOLN, Neb., October 1.—F. H. Newell, chief of engineers in government irrigation work, is here consulting with field engineers and Nebraska members of Congress. Mr. Newell says the government will soon sink a number of artesian wells in Western Nebraska for the purpose of ascertaining the depth necessary to have a continuous water flow. The same plan will be followed in Kansas and South Dakota. Mr. Newell was met in Lincoln by Arthur P. Davis, principal engineer in charge of construction in the West. He is on his way to Chicago, where machinery will be purchased for work on the Colorado river. The two will meet later in Denver, where they will formulate plans for the winter's work in the South and West.

A St. Louis Boodler.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 1.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from South McAlester, I. T., says that Emile Hartmann, a former member of the House of Delegates, who has been a fugitive from justice since September 8th, was arrested last night by a deputy marshal at the residence of his brother-in-law in that city. The prisoner is one of the six fugitives indicted for bribery on the confession of John K. Murrell, another former Councilman under indictment, who recently came back from Mexico, whither he had fled. Hartmann is charged with bribery in the Suburban bill and the Lighting bill affairs and with perjury by reason of his testimony before the grand jury last spring.

Battleship on Rocks.

YOKOHAMA, Oct. 1.—The Japanese battleship Shikishima, which was driven ashore at Yokosuka during the typhoon of Monday, is still on the rocks. Operations for refloating her are proceeding. The estimates of the number of people who lost their lives when the tidal wave, which accompanied the typhoon, swept over the Odawara district, near Yokohama, were exaggerated. It is probable that not more than 200 persons were drowned.

Hanged at Portland.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Oct. 1.—Walter Sullivan, a young negro, was lynched today at Portland, Ashley county. Sullivan was charged with shooting D. J. Reddy, a white man, in the back.

Macedonian Disorders

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 1.—The Macedonian disorders are regarded here as simply a protest against Russia participation in the Shipkass celebrations.

German Duties.

BERLIN, Oct. 1.—The tariff committee of the Reichstag at today's session maintained its previous decision regarding minimum duties on cattle.

LIEUT. GEN. NELSON A.
MILES IS NOW

possible. Every minute of my time will be given to looking over the ground while here, and I consider that I shall have my hands full.

"From appearances this is a most beautiful part of the United States. The general impression I have had of the Islands is one of their great beauty and I am looking forward to further enjoyment in going about through the plantations and seeing the character of the country."

Col. Marion P. Maus, who has been on the staff of Gen. Miles for many years, knows Honolulu right well, as he has made one trip here as inspector and is conversant with all army property and with the needs of the post. He said that this was the last general inspection trip of Gen. Miles as the officer would retire next year. In consequence he will see all that is to be seen in every part of the new possessions. At Guam there will be a stop sufficient to permit a view of the island, and then the run to Manila will be continued.

It is the intention of the party to spend from six weeks to two months in the Philippines, the journeys being so laid out that they will cover all the islands where detachments of troops are stationed. For this purpose there will be a transport placed at the disposal of the party. The return trip will be made by way of the Suez canal and the Mediterranean sea.

Gen. Miles is one of the Civil war veterans who rose to distinction from civil life, and throughout his administration he has been a consistent friend of the enlisted man. He has introduced many reforms and brought himself under strong criticism at times by his outspoken endeavor to make the army an institution of the people.

Mrs. Miles, who is accompanying her husband on this his longest tour of inspection, is a Sherman, being a daughter of Judge Sherman, a niece of Gen. Tecumseh Sherman and of Senator John Sherman of Ohio.

Mrs. Hooker is the wife of a marine officer now on duty in the Philippines.

The journey to Pearl Harbor today will be made by the immediate party of Gen. Miles, the launch of the navy being used, and the return trip being by train. The entire harbor will be inspected, as well as the spots which have been selected for the fortifications.

This evening there will be a Hawaiian concert and lani dance for the party given by Manager Smith at the Hawaiian Hotel.

WRIGHT PROBABLY WENT ON OCEANIC STEAMER ALAMEDA

The arrival of the Alameda today will set at rest all speculations as to the means of departure of the Territorial Treasurer. The name on the passenger list indicates that however great the precautions taken by Wright in leaving Honolulu, he afterwards gave his name to the purser as "W. Harrison." This would be borne out by the theory that he was given assistance to escape and concealed himself until after the steamer had left. He very likely remained in his cabin until the arrival of the steamer in San Francisco where he probably lost no time in disappearing. The Alameda will be watched for with interest today for she may bring definite news of William Harrison Wright, and some of the friends of the treasurer hint that Wright himself will be aboard the steamer.

Looking After Poles.

VIENNA, Oct. 1.—Herr Stapinski, a deputy of the Diet of Galicia and leader of the Polish People's Party in that province, announces that he is going to America to investigate the condition there of Polish immigrants. He will address meetings in several cities, try to induce the Poles to return to their own country, arrange for those remaining to receive some economic training and organize Polish associations.

The Von Hollebens.

BERLIN, Oct. 1.—Embassador von Holleben attended on Sunday a reunion of the Holleben family at Rudolstadt, where the head of the house settled 450 years ago in Feudal relation to the Counts of Schwarzburg. Chancellor von Holleben, 86 years of age and the senior member of the family, presided at a dinner attended by forty-five of its members. Three lieutenant-generals participated. The Ambassador proposed the health of the family.

Relief From Abroad.

GLASGOW, October 1.—It is said here that the Scotch Coal Masters have secured large contracts for anthracite coal to go to the United States.

Atkinson Resigns.

MANILA, Sept. 27.—Fred W. Atkinson, Superintendent of the Philippine schools, has resigned. The resignation takes effect January 1, 1903.

Signs of the Boxers.

HONGKONG, October 1.—Anti-Christian and anti-foreign placards are being displayed in Canton.

Old as the Pyramids

And as little changed by the ages, is Scrofula, than which no disease, save Consumption, is responsible for a larger mortality, and Consumption is its outgrowth.

It affects the glands, the mucous membranes, tissues and bones; causes bunches in the neck, catarrhal troubles, rickets, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, cutaneous eruptions, etc.

"I suffered from scrofula, the disease affecting the glands of my neck. I did everything I was told to do to eradicate it, but without success. I then began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the swelling in my neck entirely disappeared and my skin resumed a smooth, healthy appearance. The cure was complete." Miss ANITA MITCHELL, 615 Scott St., Covington, Ky.
